

dis Ability Awareness
Begins with You

“There is no greater disability in society, than the inability to see a person as more.”

Robert M. Hensel, a leading figure in the disability community.

For more on his life see:

<http://www.roberthensel.webs.com/>

dis Ability Awareness
Begins with You

“There is no greater disability in society, than the inability to see a person as more.”

Robert M. Hensel, a leading figure in the disability community.

For more on his life see:

<http://www.roberthensel.webs.com/>

When you begin to see the person, not the disability, you will discover that they are not a problem to be fixed. Instead, you will:

1. Recognize the barriers that they face and do your part to remove them.
2. Discover their gifts and abilities and together find ways to use them.
3. Create opportunities for friendships to flourish.
4. Begin to build communities where everyone belongs.

For ideas or information, please contact us at Pleasant View, Inc.
Tel. 540-896-8255 <http://www.pleasantviewinc.org/>

When you begin to see the person, not the disability, you will discover that they are not a problem to be fixed. Instead, you will:

1. Recognize the barriers that they face and do your part to remove them.
2. Discover their gifts and abilities and together find ways to use them.
3. Create opportunities for friendships to flourish.
4. Begin to build communities where everyone belongs.

For ideas or information, please contact us at Pleasant View, Inc.
Tel. 540-896-8255 <http://www.pleasantviewinc.org/>

